Teacher Note:

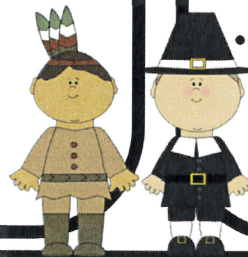

WOW how is it November already! This month we will be inviting Grandparents for a fall party. November 20 & 21 grandparents are invited to celebrate fall/thanksgiving with your child. There will be a craft, snack, hayride (weather permitting) and a time your child can show the preschool off to their grandparents. Please invite grandparents to come at 10:30am to the church building (door 1 or 2). For this party to run smoothly we need a few volunteers to help on the day of the party. November Needs:

November is the perfect time to teach our children about giving and sharing. We will be collecting canned goods for the month of November. Our cans will be donated to a local food pantry and/or families within our congregation here at SJCoFC. You may bring in one can a week, each day, or a whole case- whatever works for you. Only bring in what you are financially able, this is not required. Thank you for your generosity! If for any reason you find yourself in need over the holidays these items are also for you. Please let me know if we can help in any way.

Reminders

Its becoming coat season. Please be helping and teaching your child how to put on and take of their coats/jackets. Hats and gloves are also a great thing to keep in bags as we will go outside as much as we can!
